)
Defendant.)

COMES NOW the defendant in the above-captioned criminal cause, together with counsel of record, and respectfully waives the requirement of Rule 2.33(2)(b) of the Iowa Rules of Criminal Procedure, respectfully setting forth the following:

1. The defendant has been informed of his/her right to have a trial on the issues herein within 90 days from the date the information or indictment was filed pursuant to Rule 2.33(2)(b) I.R.CR.P
2. The defendant has been informed that waiver of such right shall remain in effect until such time as Defendant shall, in writing or in open court, withdraw such waiver. The defendant has further been informed that a new 90-day period shall commence at the time of withdrawal of such waiver.
3. The defendant has been informed that execution thereof is not an Application for Continuance of Trial and does not, of itself, constitute grounds for continuance of trial.
4. The defendant has been informed that this waiver may be withdrawn at any time in the manner described above.

WHEREFORE, Defendant voluntarily waives his/her right to be tried within the time limits set forth in Rule 2.33(2)(b) I.R.Cr.P.
